Hope receive protection from expenses related to organ pipes for a pipe organ

This is a follow-up note to last month's article about God answering prayer with yes, no, and wait. In that article I wrote, Sometimes asking of God is like asking for presents at Christmas time. Sometimes our request is such that if we did get it we wouldn't be ready for it. Or it would affect others in ways we didn't think of, but God thinks of.

Nevertheless, God tells us to "ask," "seek" and "knock." And in the process of waiting to see if the answer is 'yes' or 'no' or 'wait' we learn a lot about ourselves and our motives. So ask and seek and knock before God. And learn.

I was thinking about this when I asked for the organ pipes. Yes, you heard that right. St. Paul Lutheran in Farmers Branch is closing and giving their pipe organ pipes away. When I heard about I decided to ask for them (for free). I knew we had to learn a lot after asking. (July Newsletter)

And learn we did. And the learning came in a surprising way. One Sunday after church Stuart Bohannon, who has been attending the 8:00 AM service for some months now, came over to Cathy Peterson with some thoughts about the organ sounds. Cathy realized that he knew a lot about organ sounds and appreciated his help. She then inquired about how he knew about this organ. As it turned out Stuart installed the organ thirteen years ago.

Once Cathy realized what a gold mine he was she asked if he knew about pipe organs. As it turned out he knows a lot. She asked if he read pastor's July article wondering if that moved him to come talk to her about the organ. He hadn't seen it. They ended up talking more and one thing turned to another and soon I was getting copied on emails.

I thought, "Ok, Lord, I think you are helping us out here. Thank you."

Mission Statement: To discover and respond to our call
TO KNOW JESUS TO FOLLOW JESUS TO SERVE JESUS in unique ministries.

And God did help. Stuart ended up getting us connected to Bill Ehrke who has incredible expertise and soon after both Bill and Stuart went to look at the pipes. They were truly a Godsend because Bill determined fairly quickly that the pipes at St. Paul's were in a state that it would take quite an expense to bring them back to playing quality, and they were short quite a few pipes on top of it. Bill said that the pipes were basically decorative.

This was all we needed to know. I wrote St. Paul's and thanked them for the chance to look into the pipes but that we wouldn't be taking them because of the expense and incredible effort it would take to move the project along. St. Paul's understood and were happy to learn more about the pipes themselves. They realized they could leave the pipes in place and allow them to decorate the building for the next group using it.

I see God's fingerprints all over this. He was protecting us from going down a road that would have cost a lot (when we do not have money for such things) and would have cost a lot of effort (when I would rather see effort spent elsewhere right now.) Thank you Stuart. Thank you Bill. And thank you Cathy for seizing the moment to get an answer from God. After a short time of giving the answer "wait," God's final answer was, "No." His ways are best. God is truly good!

Update your Serving Preferences

Do you currently serve our church in worship as an usher, greeter, coffee hostess, or another way? Would you like to serve? During the month of August, we will have new blue sheets available for you to update your information regarding the areas you would like to serve and how often.

We would like everyone who is currently serving to fill one of these sheets out, along with anyone who would like to serve in a new way. This will make sure we have up-to-date information. Thank you for everything you do to serve and minister at Hope!

Worship Team—Please remember that if you are scheduled to serve on the worship team on a given Sunday (coffee hostess, usher, greeter, etc.) and are unable to serve that day, please find a replacement and then notify Karine Samer in the church office.

Growing Your Faith: Call to Know, Follow & Serve Jesus

Adult & Youth Sunday School: 9:00 AM (Kids are on break until fall)

Adult Sunday School

- Continuing in August: “Taking the Anxiety out of Evangelism” - Led by Pastor Joel. Does the thought of evangelism and sharing your faith make you uncomfortable or fearful? Pastor Joel will share a way of thinking about evangelism that will lower your anxiety level. Rather than feeling like evangelism requires you to share your faith with every person you meet, the scriptures suggest that you need to focus on those who are open and receptive to hearing the gospel, referred to as a “Person of Peace.” Come learn how to look for someone who might be a Person of Peace.
- Panera Women’s Book Study is on break until fall.

Other Spiritual Growth Opportunities

- On break until Fall: Timothy Project Bible Study, Wednesday evenings, 7:15-8:30 PM. Taught by Pastor Wendy. Over a three year period of time, you will:
 - You will read through the entire Bible and study portions as you go.
 - Learn to hear God personally speak to you through his living, active word. Incredible!
 - Learn various spiritual disciplines so that you may know Jesus as a profound friend
 - Learn to pray
 - Learn to study the Bible in a faithful in-depth manner

No Bible knowledge or experience needed. Participate as you desire. We will study the early part of the Old Testament this year as well as parts of the New Testament. Newcomers welcome!

- On break until Fall: Wednesday Evening Prayer and Communion, 6:15-7:15 PM Wednesdays. Come for silent prayer in our prayer chapel. Prayer guides, Bibles, and journaling supplies are made available for you so that you can spend meaningful time in prayer listening for God. Each evening closes with anointing with oil and Holy Communion.
- On break until Fall: Women’s Faith Circle—meets the second Tuesday of the month, 7:30 pm at the church. Come for fellowship, devotions, and Bible study led by Carolee Jurgens. All women of the church are welcome.
- Small (Spiritual Formation) Groups—Develop faith relationships. Talk about faith and real life. To explore an interest in becoming a part of a group, see Pastor Joel or Matt Cleaver.

Daily Devotionals and Study Resources

Available on the table in the church lobby. Take one!
