Keep the Main Thing the Main Thing

Pastors
Joel & Wendy Berthelsen
pastor.joel@sbcglobal.net
pastor.wendy@sbcglobal.net

In tense and turbulent times such as ours today (economy, political disagreement, moral disarray) it is good for us to step back and refocus. We need to deal with all the realities about us. But we can not get sidetracked by them. In the midst of such a swirl it is doubly important to keep anchored in the midst of the storm.

For this reason the phrase, "The Main thing is to keep the main thing the main thing" is going to be an organizing theme for the rest of the fall up to Advent. Below are the preaching themes that will be used so you can see (in general) what we will be taking in together.

Our Mission Statement: To discover and respond to our call

TO KNOW JESUS TO FOLLOW JESUS TO SERVE JESUS in unique ministries.

Looking

“God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope offered to us may be greatly encouraged. We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.” Hebrews 6:18-19a

Remember to “keep the main thing the main thing” during times such as ours. Pastor Joel

Timothy Project Bible Study Wednesday evenings, 7:15-8:30 PM Resumes on Wednesday, September 9

Taught by Pastor Wendy. Over a three year period of time, you will:

- You will read through the entire Bible and study portions as you go.
- Learn to hear God personally speak to you through his living, active word. Incredible!
- Learn various spiritual disciplines so that you may know Jesus as a profound friend
- Learn to pray
- Learn to study the Bible in a faithful in-depth manner

No Bible knowledge or experience needed. Participate as you desire. We will study the early part of the Old Testament this year as well as parts of the New Testament.

Ahead

Custom Designed A Life Worthy of the Call September 13, 9:15 Sunday School hour

Pastor Wendy will introduce her book by this title to both youth and adults. Copies are now available for sale $14. She also will give a short update on the non-profit teaching mission, Call Incorporated. Proceeds from the book will support Call Inc. In her absence, copies may be obtained from Carolee Jurgens (8AM worship//Sunday school), Tammy Hill (10:30 AM worship), and Pastor Joel (weekdays). The national release is Sept. 1 (Amazon, etc). You may preview the book on the publisher's website: <http://www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore/book.php?w=978-1-60696-969-4>

Read and Discuss The Shack Starting September 20th

Pastor Joel will lead a class during Sunday School hour on The Shack by William P. Young this month. He encourages those who want to read it and discuss it to purchase it and read it ahead of time.

The Shack is a novel about suffering and redemption, told in a very creative way. “At times it will seem very unorthodox to you,” says Pastor Joel. “But keep reading. It is very thought provoking and well worth the read.”

You can order it on-line or purchase the book at a Christian Bookstores, or from a store like Barnes and Noble.

Coming

Custom Designed Seminar

October 16-17

Friday evening (6–9:30 PM... Beginning with Dinner)

Saturday (9AM-4 PM)

You (everyone!) are custom designed and custom called for a custom designed life! Discover, discern and “incorporate” God’s unique call into all aspects of your life. Guidance and wisdom will be presented for understanding one’s unique individuality, recognizing God’s guiding hand, and even grappling with two of life’s more practical, yet significant questions: Who am I? What am I to do? High school youth and adults are invited! The seminar will be fun, energetic and comfortable. The presenters will be Pastor Wendy and Steve Harr. Cost: $35 (includes all materials and meals). Co-sponsored by Hope Lutheran Church and the non-profit teaching mission, Call Incorporated (www.callinc.org). Questions, RSVP or pre-register with Pastor Wendy (972-723-9688).

Northern Texas - Northern Louisiana Synod
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.

The Rev. Dr. Kevin S. Kanouse

Bishop

BpKevinKanouse@ntl.org

23 August 2009

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ in the NT-NL Synod:

+ Grace and peace be unto you from God our heavenly Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. +

“As God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which you indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts, sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him (Colossians 3:12-17).

As the 11th biennial Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America draws to a close on Sunday, August 23, I write to you with a heavy heart and, yet, with a note of hopefulness. Let me first summarize the actions I am referencing. The Assembly voted by a 2/3rds majority to adopt a new social statement for our church. Human Sexuality, Gift and Trust has been before the church for several years and our own synod assembly voted support for the passage of the social statement this past April. Social Statements serve as documents to be used for education in the church. This document is not perfect, but it calls our attention to the proper place of sexuality in our individual lives and the scandalous reality of many abuses of human sexuality in our society. A small portion of the document speaks about homosexuality and, while it does not condemn it as some would have wanted, it notes the variety of biblically-based, deeply-held convictions people of our church have about the matter. I commend it to you, along with the other social statements of our church, for conversation and study.

We first voted that in the implementation of any resolutions on ministry policy changes, the ELCA commit itself to bear one another’s burdens, love the neighbor, and respect the bound consciences of all. The other actions dealt with how congregations could recognize, support, and hold publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships and whether our church will allow those in publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationships to serve as pastors or other rostered leaders in the church. As you have probably heard, the assembly acted to adopt these resolutions. Our synod assembly was formally silent on these recommendations, but there are those within the congregations of our synod who hold heart-felt, biblically-based convictions about this matter, on both sides of the issue. Scripture speaks about homosexuality or homosexual acts as sin; scripture also challenges the law and calls us to an ethic of love and inclusivity for the community of the faithful. Until the moment of voting, I was unsure how I would vote. Through prayer, drawing on my understanding of scripture, remembering the tradition of the church, and out of concern for the impact of these decisions on all the congregations and members of our synod, I voted against these two resolutions. I know that this will hearten some and disappoint others. Your NT-NL voting members were not of a united mind and prayerfully voted their conscience, faith, and biblical understanding, as well.

Now that these resolutions have passed, what is next? The first impulse of many individuals and congregations may be to believe the church has left them behind and they cannot remain part of a church that has taken such a stand. I understand those feelings, as I have lived with them myself over the past few years and continue to do so. Many believe the church has abandoned the Word of God in the scriptures by being open to this change. I, personally and pastorally, do not believe this to be true. Those who advocated for the change are also bible-believing Christians and argue their positions from scripture reading and study. We are and will continue to be a bible based church that focuses on the saving act of God in the cross of Jesus Christ. Sexuality does not define us as a church, only the cross of Christ defines us.

These, then, are things that I want to acknowledge:

As these votes were taken, we were subdued. There was no celebrating or cheering. This decision was reached out of brokenness. We all realized that there is much work and healing to do to continue to be the church together. Because of these decisions, some will rejoice, but many will grieve. It is important that we bear one another's burdens, love our neighbor, and respect the bound consciences of all, bearing each other's burdens and pain in a spirit of love.

No congregation in our synod or church will be required to accept as their pastor a person who is gay or lesbian. Congregations still have the opportunity to know who they are calling, their full background, and they have the right to decide the fitness of any person who will serve in their congregation. Your congregation will not likely be visibly changed by these decisions unless you choose for it to be so.

I am committed to remain in the ELCA and I urge you to make the same commitment. I will work with pastors and congregations who are hurt or feeling disenfranchised to discern how they can remain within the ELCA. Indeed, an amendment to the final resolution at the assembly called the ELCA to make provision in its policies to recognize the conviction of members who believe that this church should not call or roster people in a publicly accountable, lifelong, monogamous, same-gender relationship.

I urge all of our members and congregations to pray for our church, congregations, and individuals who feel that they cannot bear with the church's actions. I ask you not to act in haste to leave your congregation or the ELCA. I ask that you continue to be part of our church as we continue the conversation...we need everyone's voice to move our church forward in DiscipleLife. Finally, in the spirit of St. Paul's words to the Colossians, I urge you to bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Grace and Peace in Christ's Love,

Kevin S. Kanouse, Bishop

Pastor Joel's Initial Response to Churchwide Assembly Votes

Please read Bishop Kanouse's article about the Churchwide Assembly before reading this.

When the fourth vote regarding the sexuality issues in the church passed I emailed Bishop Kanouse right away and told him,

Bishop,

In light of today's sadness, I will be standing at all gatherings of the ELCA churches until I know better how to respectfully respond.

I will not sit on this.

*With incredible sadness for our ELCA,
Pastor Joel Berthelsen*

Further thoughts about this:

- a. I stand to symbolically draw attention to Luther's words, "Here I stand. I can do no other."
- b. I will not stand at church services (except when it is the rubric to do so.) To do otherwise would draw attention to me when the attention is God's alone.
- c. I am weighing whether to sit at meals or not. My initial thought is to do so. Jesus sat with prostitutes. I think this says I should sit and eat. I do note there are instances when we are told not to extend hospitality. My initial thought is that this is dealing with central creedal errors ("they do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh." II John 7.) However I am weighing what verse 9 means. Secondly, there are reasons to separate over sexual issues given in I Cor. 5 But those sexual issues are of "a type that are not even found amongst the Gentiles." This is not the case here. However I will continue to read and pray and ask for discernment.
- d. Since this vote went through at a simple majority it can be changed back by a simple majority. I will be working to see this done.
- e. Lastly, I see this issue as a failure of leadership on the part of our presiding Bishop Hanson. (In his case the failure was well planned out. You could call this failure a success on his part.) I will call for his removal. Secondly, Bishop Kanouse's "last second decision" to vote against the provisions (a decision that any thoughtful person would know had no effect on the voting outcome) points out the obvious. He failed to lead. Therefore, even though I like Disciplelife, and even though I like him personally, I will let be known that we need new leadership in our Synod. Neither of these calls will have much of an impact. Nevertheless, sometimes you need to state your mind simply for integrity's sake.
- f. I will be joining other Lutherans September 25, 26 in Indiana to hear other thoughts.

Pastor Joel
